

LITTLE GALLERY 2023 EMERGING ARTIST PROGRAM APPLICATION FORM

Submit to artgallery@devonport.tas.gov.au by COB Monday 17 October 2022

About the Program

The Little Gallery is named in honour of Jean Thomas who set up the first public gallery on the North West Coast of the same name in 1966.

The Little Gallery Program is a yearly schedule of exhibitions at the Devonport Regional Gallery featuring works by emerging and early career Tasmanian artists.

The Little Gallery Program promotes the work of Tasmanian artists who:

- Demonstrate experimentation in 2D and 3D art forms
- Engage with critical thinking about their practice
- Demonstrate vision and progression in their practice

Exhibitions will be displayed in the Little Gallery space of the paranable arts centre and will run for 4 to 6 weeks throughout 2023.

Artists are invited to present a talk while their exhibition is open.

Unless prior arrangements are made between the Artist and the Gallery, Gallery staff will act as mentors to emerging artists and will advise and assist with the installation of their exhibition. Individual public liability insurance may be required.

The Devonport Regional Gallery promotes and supports professionalism and equity in the arts and pays artists fees regardless of an artist's status or stage of their career. An exhibition fee is paid once a signed contract is returned to the Gallery and the exhibition is installed.

Mission and Aims

Applicants are asked to address how their exhibition will enhance the Devonport Regional Gallery's Mission and Aims.

MISSION STATEMENT: The Devonport Regional Gallery will provide an exhibition program and collection of the highest standard for the benefit, pleasure, and participation of the community and to promote inspiration and knowledge for our diverse audiences.

The Devonport Regional Gallery aims to enhance public understanding and enjoyment of visual art, craft, and design through the delivery of a high quality and engaging exhibition, education, and events program that promotes and interprets the work of Tasmanian arts practitioners in a national context.
